Learning Opportunity

Darci truly understands how challenging being a parent can be. She's now the proud mom of two young adults. Throughout her parenting journey, she has always kept her focus on the 90%s. It's a simple tool that changes the way everyone views their life. Darci believes that each person holds a magnifying glass and we get to choose what to do with it. We can focus it on the negatives of our families and lives - those situations that bother us and drag us down - or we can choose to focus on the 90%s in our lives that are positive and beneficial.

"Darci's message of Focus On The 90% resonated with all who heard her speak. Staff, parents and community members were all provided with the opportunity to; reflect on their individual circumstances, identify those worth celebrating and identify those that needed to be dealt with or accepted. Darci's approachability, straightforwardness and professionalism are second to none. I heard from many who attended her sessions that they were inspired, motivated to make change, and appreciative of how blessed they are." Lloydminster Public School Division
